Import completed Bulk Campaign Management spreadsheets

Save the changes to your templates, then return to the app's Campaigns page. Select Import to upload your changes to the dashboard. Once you import the changes, you have the opportunity to preview and confirm them.

Validation errors

If you attempt to import a spreadsheet with validation errors, an error message appears prompting you to download the file and fix the errors.

1. Select Download from the error prompt to download the file you attempted to import, appended with validation error notes.
2. When you've located and fixed the errors, save the file.
3. Return to the dashboard and select Reupload file to try again.
